AMUSEMENTS.

At the Grand.

In addition to starring in "The Man Who Stood Still," Mr. Louis Mann is Who Stood Still," Mr. Louis Mann is directing the starring tour of Clara Lipman (Mrs. Louis Mann) in a delightful farce-comedy called "Marjory's Mother" which was written by the author of "Madame X." M. Bisson, one of the best known of the French play makers. Her company includes Consuelo Balley, who was seen in the company that surrounded Maude Adams when she played "The Jesters." Another member of that company was Madame Mathilde Cottrelly, who oddly enough is appearing with Louis Mann in "The Man Who Stood Still" as his good-hearted spinster sister, who acts good-hearted spinster sister, who acts as a mother to Krauss' (Louis Mann) motherless daughter, Marie. Mr. Louis Mann comes to the Grand

One of the most interesting productions that will be at the Grand this season is "In Wyoming." It is the product of the versatile Willard Mack's pen. Mr. Mack was happy in the selection of his locality upon which to build a story and it contains all the elements that go to make a success. No section of America holds a stronger fascination for the tourist than does the great west—with its great wide plains and interesting characters. Mr. Mack has laid his story in Wyoming, the famous "cartle country." where many stories could be told of fortunes made and lost. He has cleverly converted actual occurrences and scenes to stage uses, and how well he did his work will be demonstrated when "In Wyoming" will be presented at the Grand Saturday matinee and night.

In a season that is remarkable actual.

In a season that is remarkable chiefly because of attacks by press and clergymen upon certain managers because of their alleged tendency to produce plays of questionable moral tone, it is worthy of more than passing comment that "Polly of the Circus," which comes here at the Grand on Monday has been the subject of special commendation

Interest Manifested in North Side Slogan.

Suggestions Being Received From All Over County.

MANY ARE ENQUIRING

As to Next Meeting of Civic Club.

Young Jewish Couple Will Wed Sunday.

From all over Shawnee county and specially the northern part, great inerest is being manifested in the slogan contest for the North side. This evidenced from the way ideas are being received by E. E. Olinger, secretary of the Civic club, every day. This contest was inaugurated by Fred Voi-land, to be closed March 1. At that committee will decide upon what slogan is the best and most con cise. The winner will be awarded a prize of a $25 dresser trunk which has been offered by Mr. Volland. Anyone in Shawnee county is eligible to the from more than one hundred pulpits in churches throughout the country, and has been pronounced as the cleanest, purest, genuinely American play that the stage has seen in years.

ON THE SCHOOL QUESTION.

East Side Mother Thinks More Time Should Be Given to Writing.

It is thought that in the neighborhood of 160 people will attend the next meeting of the Civic club which is to be held at fire station No. 1 Friday night. This is judging from the inquiries regarding the organization and its time of meeting which are being received every day by J. B. Billard, president of the club. A great many have already paid their dues, and have expressed a willingness to become active members at once.

To the Editor of the State Journal:

To Mrs. Monroe and other ladies who are taking such an active interest in the improvement of the city schools, I want to offer a few words of encouragement and also information. Although in my humble opinion the schools are very good there is room for coming year w.ll see more people mover the coming year w.ll see more people mover. coming year w.ll see more people mov-ing in than ever before.

ern slang which was thrown in from time to time by men in ancient costume. These expressions included: "By hen!"; "By Jimminle!"; "Well, what do you know about that?" and "Get a move on you, hike out!"

The play was presented with historical staging and costumes by the Greek, Letin and oratory departments of the college. The manner in which several of those who took part conversed was slightly mechanical, but on the whole the production was a marked success. An invitation has been received from Ottawa asking for a repetition of the play in that town.

The following were those who took part: Miss Lurene Irish, Miss Helen Brigham, Edmond McGann, Alex Spencer, Caleb Smick, Merle Palmer, Erwin Keller, John Coe, Raiph Foster and Henry O'Brien.

The old-fashioned game of "nosey-poker" is being revived in the elite fashionable circles of Topeka society. This game is played like the regular poker, but the loser must submit to three distinct raps on the nasal organ. When girls and boys play the forfeits may be varied.

A misplaced head in a Kansas town paper has placed several people in an embarrassing position. A heading, "Got Him at Last," should have been placed over a patent medicine ad, but by mistake it was run over the writeup of a wedding which had transpired after a long courtship.
